

TO GO

1. What first comes to your mind when you think about missions and missionaries? In what ways are your thoughts accurate? In what ways might they be stereotyped?
2. Read Psalm 67. In what ways was the nation of Israel blessed? How does God's heart for the world show up in this Psalm? How do the blessings of Israel and God's heart for the world work together?
3. Read 3 John 1–8. Who are the missionaries in this passage and what unique challenges do they face?
4. In what ways does John commend Gaius in this passage? How does he demonstrate godliness towards the missionaries?
5. How does the example of Gaius teach the church today to support missions and missionaries? Why is this support essential in God's design to reach the world and our part in it?
6. What is the goal of "sending well" for those called to go? How about for those sending?
7. In what ways can you more fully participate in supporting missions today?
