

TO GO

1. Describe a situation when you experienced injustice. How did it make you feel? What kind of conversations did you have with God? How does injustice manifest today?
2. Read Habakkuk 2:6–20. What warnings does God give to the powerful Babylonians through this prophecy? How does this encourage you about the injustice done to you or to those you love? How does it sober you and make you want to avoid the same path as the Babylonians? Was there any “woe” that was particularly convicting? Why?
3. Read Habakkuk 2:14. What kind of knowledge do you think God is filling the earth with? How is God’s glory manifest in His creation? How can we be participants in filling the earth with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord? What does that specifically mean for you?
4. Read Habakkuk 2:20. Why do you think it’s so difficult to sit in silence before the Lord? Describe the experience of sitting in silence during the worship service. What about it made you uncomfortable? What about it helped you to focus? Why is silence sometimes the only right response to seeing God in his holy temple?
5. Take some time to sit with God in silence once again. Consider making this a normal pattern in your life. Ask God to help you to see Him clearly and to trust Him for whatever wrongs are done to you. Express to Him your confidence in His plan and thank Him for his promises.
